OUR MISSION

Cima Arts is a Dallas-based arts nonprofit organization whose mission is to expand the arts in marginalized communities. We connect audiences with local artists through exhibits, events, and educational programs, championing diverse voices to shape a vibrant and inclusive creative community.

Cima Arts is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting artists and creating inclusive creative spaces through community-driven programs and initiatives.

UNDERSTANDING THE DALLAS ART LANDSCAPE AND OUR COMMUNITY

Overview of the Dallas metroplex as a growing arts hub; Dallas is one of the fastest growing metroplex in the nation, where art is sacred, yet unapproachable to marginalized community.

Common challenges faced by local and marginalized artists in the community; We lack resources, there are very few spaces for artists in our community to thrive in the creative world professionally.

The role of arts organizations like Cima Arts in promoting inclusivity and diversity in the art industry; Cima Arts members are tired of waiting for a spot in the industry, so we decided to make our own for communities like our own.

HOW WE PRIORITIZE OUR COMMUNITY AND EXPAND OUR MISSION

While events are a key focus for us right now, designed to expand our mission, our ultimate goal is to establish a creative center that offers a wide range of resources to the community. Events allow us to empower our team to plan and execute experiences that foster collaboration and showcase local talent, helping us pave the way for our future vision.

Process:

- Steps for planning impactful shows and events that support our mission.
- Partnering with local artists and organizations to create meaningful experiences.
- Balancing the logistical details with our creative aspirations to bring diverse perspectives to life.

Ideas:

Cima is always open to hearing new ideas, especially those that integrate local artists and amplify a variety of voices.
